Generation No. 1

1. JOHANNES³ BELLINGER (*DIETERICH*², *HANS*¹) was born Bef. November 17, 1664 in Germany near Rodenbach¹, and died Aft. 1725 in Burnetsfield, Herkimer Co, NY. He married ANNA MARIA MARGARETHA KUHN April 24, 1690 in Langenselbold, Germany², daughter of HANS KUHN and CATHARINA. She was born Bef. August 11, 1661 in Germany, and died Aft. April 30, 1725 in Herkimer Co, NY.

Notes for JOHANNES BELLINGER: Johannes was baptized on November 17, 1664 in Rodenbach, Nassau Hessen, Germany. In 1710 about 1200 German Palatines were brought to Columbia Co, NY as indentured servants, and about the same number were settled on the west bank of the Hudson River. They were set free in 1712, but were not given the land that was promised them. Some moved on but many of the families stayed in Columbia and surrounding counties. This is probably the Johannes Bellinger listed in 1714 "The Book of Names, Especially Relating to the Early Palatines and the First Settlers in the Mohawk Valley." Other Bellingers listed were: Nicolaus, Marcus, Henrich, and Elizabetha. Marcus and Henrich are shown as being in the East Camp, Soldiers in the Canadian Exposition of 1711. David A. Bellinger wrote that "The German (Palatine) Bellingers were driven from Steinau An Der Strasse and other southern German villages in 1709. Queen Anne's London Board of Trade offered passage for approximately 3000 destitute Palatines on 10 ships destined for the New World (America) with requirement that the favored Palatines work as laborers to provide tar urgently needed by the British Navy. Several hundred died enroute to America. More than 1800 Palatines were settled in Oct. 1710 at Livingston manor, 90 miles north of New York City on the Hudson River. "Johannes Bellinger (Hunter Lists #37) and other family members were the first Caucasians in upstate New York Wilderness and finally settled in 1723 in what is now Herkimer Co, NY." Jones (1985) asserts that "... all the emigrant Bellingers of 1709 were related, but not in the way previously thought" (p. 47). "Johannes was called a carpenter in 1699 (Langenselbold) and was listed as having one horse at Huttengesab 3 March 1701 (Birstein Archives)" (Jones, 1985, p. 49). He first appeared on the Hunter lists 4 Aug 1710 with 4 persons over 10 years of age. In a Palatine debt book dated 1712, Johannes was listed among several carpenters. In 1716, Johannes was living in NeuQuunsberg. On April 30, 1725, he was a patentee on the north side of the Mohawk River.

He was born July 24, 1740 in Currytown, NY¹⁶, and died November 23, 1816 in Currytown, Montgomery Co, NY¹⁷.

Notes for LIEUT. JACOB D. DIEVENDORF: Excerpt from <http://www.nancylanni.com/?p=1102>

"9 July 1781- The Currytown settlement [now Root, Montgomery Co.] was attacked by Tory and Indian raiders led by Loyalist Lieutenant John Doxstader/Dockstader. They killed or captured the settlers working in the fields and burned the settlement. [Horton's Historic Articles Timeline for 1781 found online at <http://hortonsarticles.org/timeline1781.htm>]. Jacob Dieffendorf Sr. and his two sons, Frederick and Jacob, Jr., were at work in one of their fields when they were attacked. Jacob Sr. and Frederick made an attempt to reach Fort Lewis but Frederick was overtaken and tomahawked, scalped and left for dead (Jacob Sr. escaped). Jacob Jr. was captured along with Andrew Bellinger, and Mary Hiller. Philip Bellinger Jr., Jacob Moyer and his father, who had been cutting trees, were killed. [James, F. Morrison. The Battle of New Dorlach, Tryon County, July 10, 1781 found online at <http://www.rootsworld.com/~nytryon/newdorlach.html>]"

Lieutenant and later Captain in the Revolutionary War. Jacob was a farmer who owned considerable property in the town of Root, where he and his father were early settlers. He is called the first white settler of Root, actually settling in Currytown prior to the Revolutionary War. Jacob's will was dated 28 Feb 1816 and probated 1 Feb 1917 (sources: Bell, 1932; Montgomery Co, NY, Calendar of Wills). His residence was listed as Charleston. The will is excellent documentation of his living family. I found it interesting that Jacob willed "my seat No. five on the Gallery in the white church in Curry Town" to Jacob Stowits, son of his daughter Margaret and George Stowits. He left his pew No. 4 on the lower floor to his 3 grandsons and he left seat No. 5 on the lower floor to his six granddaughters. Jacob's wife was not mentioned in the will, providing evidence of her earlier death.

The cemetery where Jacob and Elizabeth are buried is Dievendorf Burial Lot, Root, Montgomery Co, NY, "located in a pasture about 400 feet southeast of the Hubschmitt home, which is on the Sloansville Road. The cemetery is surrounded by a metal fence, still in good condition, and contains three monuments, visible from the road. The cemetery is grown up with trees and brush, mostly poison ivy, making the location of the stones difficult. Many of the stones are lying on the ground, partially buried. The owner of the land mentioned some unmarked fieldstones which I failed to locate. I cannot be positive that I located every tombstone" (Elswick, Albert, Copied 1 Aug 1967).

He married DELIA HERKIMER. She was born July 14, 1728, and died October 17, 1804 in Herkimer Co, NY, buried in Fort Herkimer Church Cemetery, Herkimer.

Notes for COL. PETER P. BELLINGER: Colonel Bellinger lived at the west end of our present city. There were probably one or two houses on that side, among them the Vrooman House a tavern standing just west of the West Shore crossing, on German street, and a Johnson family lived south of the river just opposite Perry's Lock. Christopher P. Bellinger and Johnson are said to have been in control of the carry on the south side of the river which was established by the Herkimers prior to the revolution. It led from Perry's Lock up to the School House, then along Casler Street past the Vrooman House and from there to Trask's Ice House. It was established to compete with the Petrie carry on the north side. The late Sandy Casler told me that Colonel Peter Bellinger and some of his sons built a grist mill west of the present Rockton Mill which was destroyed either by fire or water. He was under the impression that that mill had been destroyed twice and then was never rebuilt. After the death of Odelia Bellinger, the property, that is lots 15 and 16 went to her children, agreeably to a clause in the will of John Jost Herkimer.

In 1801 Peter Bellinger conveyed to Christopher P. Bellinger, his son, that part of 15 and 16 between the landing place and lot 17. This grant was probably intended to convey all the water power rights which Peter Bellinger claimed. Before the death of Colonel Peter Bellinger the heirs must have found out that the title was not in their father, but rested in themselves through their mother and on January 26th, 1811 all the children of Peter Bellinger and their husbands and wives, conveyed to him lots 15 and 16; in that way he was enabled to divide his property according to his own notions and he willed lots 15 and 16; to Christopher P., his son. From subsequent transactions, it appears that between 1801 and 1814 Christopher Bellinger and some of his brothers had erected a grist mill. The grist mill occupied the ground on which the easterly part of the Rockton Mill now stands.

With this long introduction, I have brought my statement up to about the year 1825, that is to the period at which Eunice owned only the Grist Mill on the north side and had not given any leases for other mills. On the south side

Christopher P. Bellinger had bought out his brothers and owned the riparian rights and a grist mill and perhaps an uncompleted saw mill on the south side of the river (Smith, 1914, p. 132).

Markers were erected for Peter and Delia Bellinger in 2005 (<http://nancyscorner.net/nancorpbellinger.htm>).

He was captured by Indians and taken to [Niagara] Canada at the destruction of Currytown in Oct. 1781. He was released 21 May 1783. Christian purchased a farm from Jelles Fonda and settled in the eastern part of Danube, NY in 1792 (source: Walter, William Irving, A sketch of Some of the Prominent Families of the Town of Danube, Address delivered before the Herkimer County Historical Society, 11 April 1903). Due to service during the Revolutionary War, he drew a small pension until his death. He was at one time the owner of 4 slaves (source: Danube Twp Family Sketches). Christian and Barbara are buried in Montgomery Co, NY cemetery on Bellinger Rd. in St. Johnsville Twp.

"Christian Bellinger was born in 1764 and came to Danube in 1792. He was a son of Frederick Bellinger and with his younger brother, Andrew, was captured by the Indians and taken to Canada at the destruction of Currytown in 1781. On his return he married Barbara, daughter of Jacob Diefendorf, a leading resident of that locality. He died in 1838. His son, Philip C. Bellinger, lived on the farm until his death in February, 1872, and it is now in the possession of his only surviving son, Washington. Philip C. Bellinger was a prominent figure in town for many years and he left an enviable reputation as a man of strict business integrity. His wife was a member of the Zimmerman family and their descendants in Danube and Minden are quite numerous. Jacob, a brother of Philip, died in the town of Little Falls in 1859 where his descendants still reside. Of the daughters of Christian Bellinger, one married Conrad Snell of Danube, one Abraham Snell of Minden, and one Conrad Mowers of Stark" (source: Smith, 1914, p.58).

Children are listed above under (27) Christian Bellinger.

30. CATHERINA⁶ DIEVENDORF (ELISABETH⁵ BELLINGER, PHILIP⁴, JOHANNES³, DIETERICH², HANS¹) was born April 09, 1766 in Currytown, Montgomery Co, NY, and died Aft. 1817 in NY. She married CONRAD MOWERS 1785 in Currytown, Montgomery Co, NY, son of CONRAD MOWERS and ANNA SCHMIDT. He was born August 1758 in Claverack, Columbia Co, NY⁴³, and died Bet. 1846 - 1850 in NY.

Notes for CATHERINA DIEVENDORF: She was baptised 18 May 1766 in the Reformed Dutch Church of Stone Arabia. In her father's will, dated 1816, she is mentioned as the widow of Conrad Mowers, and her son Jacob is also mentioned along with her daughters Elizabeth and Nancy. Catherine received $1200 in her father's will.

Notes for CONRAD MOWERS: His father-in-law, Jacob Diefendorf, left a will written in 1816 (source: Bell, O.W., 1932). His daughter Catherine, was listed as the widow of Conrad Mowers, but this is thought to mean they were divorced. Three children were listed as heirs of Jacob Diefendorf: Jacob, Nancy, and Elizabeth Mowers.

This Conrad is probably the man who received a Pension dated 1832 from Montgomery Co, NY for service during the Revolutionary War (copy in my files). He was a private under Capt. Yates of the Regiment commanded by Col. Fisher in NY for 12 months. In the full pension application, several other units were mentioned but the handwriting is difficult to read. Conrad was 74 years of age when he appeared in court in 1832. His service began in fall 1776 and went into 1778. He was involved in the Battle of Oriskany. He testified that when he entered the service he lived in the town of Currytown (now Root). George Mowers gave testimony about his service. His pension of $40 began on 4 March 1834.

According to Robert Matteson (Town Historian for Smyrna, NY in 2006) that Conrad was married three times. His 3rd wife, Barbara, is buried in the North Side Cemetery, Plymouth, NY. The Conrad who lived in Smyrna, NY was listed on the 1840 census as a Pensioner, age 79, making him born about 1761.

31. JACOB⁶ DIEVENDORF, JR. (ELISABETH⁵ BELLINGER, PHILIP⁴, JOHANNES³, DIETERICH², HANS¹) was born September 23, 1769 in Currytown (Root), Montgomery Co, NY^{44,45}, and died October 08, 1854 in Currytown, Montgomery Co, NY at age 85⁴⁶. He married MARGARET BELLINGER May 12, 1801 in NY⁴⁷, daughter of WILLIAM BELLINGER and HANNAH MATTICE. She was born December 26, 1780 in NY, and died November 06, 1844 in NY age 63.

Notes for JACOB DIEVENDORF, JR.: Jacob "grew up on the farm in that then wild and thinly settled neighborhood where life at the best was a struggle, rendered doubly hazardous by the conflict then going on between the colonies and Great Britain and the presence in the neighborhood of hostile Indians and unfriendly, vindictive Tories" (Reynolds, 1911). Several of the citizens were killed or captured and taken to Canada during the Indian and Tory raid on Currytown, NY on 9 July 1781, known as "Invasion Day." Jacob was taken south to Sharon, and the Indians began killing prisoners. He was scalped by Indians and left for dead. He was found the next day by Col. Vedder and taken to Stone Arabia, where he remained for five years. Later in life, he became very wealthy in land, but he always suffered pain and discomfort from his scalp wound. The complete story can be found at: <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nyherkim/johnson/Chap10.html>

1850 census, Root, Montgomery Co, NY: Jacob Dievendorf (80) lived alone. He was listed as a farmer with property valued at $10,000. Nearby was his brother Henry I (69) and family. Jacob and Margaret are buried in Dievendorf Burial Lot, Root, Montgomery Co, NY off Sloansville Rd.

Excerpt from The History of Montgomery County: The Town of Root: The author tells a story about the Indian attack called "oxtader's murderous raid up the settlement in 1781" when Jacob Dievendorf was scalped. "Mr. Lossing thus speaks in his Pictorial Field Book of the Revolution, published in 1851: We reached Currytown, a small village nearly four miles south of Canajoharie, at about noon. The principal object of my visit there was to see the venerable Jacob Dievendorff, who with his family was among the sufferers when that settlement was destroyed by Indians and Tories in July 1781. Accompanied by his son-in-law (Dr. Snow, of Currytown) we found the old patriot busily engaged in his barn threshing grain; and although nearly eighty years of age he seemed almost as vigorous and active as most men are at sixty. His sight and hearing are somewhat defective, but his intellect, as exhibited by his clear remembrance of the circumstances of his early life, had lost but little of its strength. He is one of the largest landowners in Montgomery county, owning one thousand fertile acres lying in a single tract, where the scenes of his sufferings in early life occurred. In an orchard a short distance from his dwelling the house was still standing which was stockaded and used as a fort. It is fast decaying, but the venerable owner allows time alone to work its destruction, and will not suffer a board to be taken from it. The venerable man here spoken of died Oct. 8, 1854, at the age of 84, the most wealthy resident of the town. His remains lie in the family burial place with those of his parents, on the homestead farm, which he bequeathed to his grandson, Jacob Dievendorff" (p. 163).

Notes for DANIEL BELLINGER: "Hon. Daniel Bellinger came from German Flatts in 1809. His father, John Bellinger was one of those heroes who threw themselves into the breach and changed the course of history on that fateful August day in 1777 in the marshes of Oriskany. Mrs. Daniel Bellinger who died in 1873 was a daughter of George Lotridge and Maria Seeber of Little Falls, the latter being a member of the Palatine family of that name which made for itself so excellent a record during the Revolution. Mr. Bellinger was a man of the old school. In politics he was a Jacksonian Democrat, in religion he embraced the doctrines of Universalism. A free Mason from his youth he adhered to the fraternity through the anti-masonic excitement. In all his views he was uncompromising. The honor of being the pioneer cheese maker of Danube is claimed for him. In 1840 he represented the second district of Herkimer County in the Assembly; he was supervisor of Danube in 1832 and 1852, and in 1858 he led the forlorn hope as Democratic candidate for County Clerk. She married JACOB DIEVENDORF, JR. May 12, 1801 in NY⁵⁷, son of JACOB DIEVENDORF and ELISABETH BELLINGER. He was born September 23, 1769 in Currytown (Root), Montgomery Co, NY^{58,59}, and died October 08, 1854 in Currytown, Montgomery Co. NY at age 85⁶⁰. Notes for JACOB DIEVENDORF, JR.: Jacob "grew up on the farm in that then wild and thinly settled neighborhood where life at the best was a struggle, rendered doubly hazardous by the conflict then going on between the colonies and Great Britain and the presence in the neighborhood of hostile Indians and unfriendly, vindictive Tories" (Reynolds, 1911). Several of the citizens were killed or captured and taken to Canada during the Indian and Tory raid on Currytown, NY on 9 July 1781, known as "Invasion Day." Jacob was taken south to Sharon, and the Indians began killing prisoners. He was scalped by Indians and left for dead. He was found the next day by Col. Vedder and taken to Stone Arabia, where he remained for five years. Later in life, he became very wealthy in land, but he always suffered pain and discomfort from his scalp wound. The complete story can be found at: <http://www.rootsweb.com/~nyherkim/johnson/Chap10.html>

1850 census, Root, Montgomery Co, NY: Jacob Dievendorf (80) lived alone. He was listed as a farmer with property valued at $10,000. Nearby was his brother Henry I (69) and family. Jacob and Margaret are buried in Dievendorf Burial Lot, Root, Montgomery Co, NY off Sloansville Rd.

Excerpt from The History of Montgomery County: The Town of Root: The author tells a story about the Indian attack called "oxtader's murderous raid up the settlement in 1781" when Jacob Dievendorf was scalped. "Mr. Lossing thus speaks in his Pictorial Field Book of the Revolution, published in 1851: We reached Currytown, a small village nearly four miles south of Canajoharie, at about noon. The principal object of my visit there was to see the venerable Jacob Dievendorff, who with his family was among the sufferers when that settlement was destroyed by Indians and Tories in July 1781. Accompanied by his son-in-law (Dr. Snow, of Currytown) we found the old patriot busily engaged in his barn threshing grain; and although nearly eighty years of age he seemed almost as vigorous and active as most men are at sixty. His sight and hearing are somewhat defective, but his intellect, as exhibited by his clear remembrance of the circumstances of his early life, had lost but little of its strength. He is one of the largest landowners in Montgomery county, owning one thousand fertile acres lying in a single tract, where the scenes of his sufferings in early life occurred. In an orchard a short distance from his dwelling the house was still standing which was stockaded and used as a fort. It is fast decaying, but the venerable owner allows time alone to work its destruction, and will not suffer a board to be taken from it. The venerable man here spoken of died Oct. 8, 1854, at the age of 84, the most wealthy resident of the town. His remains lie in the family burial place with those of his parents, on the homestead farm, which he bequeathed to his grandson, Jacob Dievendorff" (p. 163).

By his death, which occurred suddenly last Sunday evening, ties that were dear to many were severed, and the numerous friends of Mr. Bellinger gathered to pay a last tribute to the deceased. Services at the house were as simple as the Universalist ritual can be made. Passages of scripture were read by the Rev. H. J. Orelup, of Bristol. Among the floral pieces were a pillow of carnations and roses; a wreath of white lilacs from Miss Nettie Silvernail; a star of carnations and roses from Mr. and Mrs. Abram Bellinger of Little Falls; a cluster of pink carnations and lilies-of-the-valley with smilax; and a number of potted plants.
