Generation No. 1

1. JOSIAS¹ CORK was born Abt. 1759 in prob. England, and died Bef. March 09, 1802 in Parish of Eggbuckland, Devon, England, interred St. Mary's Church Cemetery, Plympton, Devon, England. He married JOAN [?] STAR June 10, 1779 in Uptontery, Devon, England¹. She was born Abt. 1760 in prob. England, and died January 1807 in Parish of Eggbuckland, Devon, England, burial site unknown.

Notes for JOSIAS CORK: The Cork family lived in the southwestern part of Devon, England during the 18th and 19th centuries. Josiah married in Uptontery, which had a population of 795 in 1801; by 1861 the population had gone down to 940 and by 1901, the population had fallen to 666. Just south of Uptontery is Cotleigh, where one of Josiah's children was born. Cotleigh is in Branscombe Parish, Colyton Hundred, Devon and its population was 214 in 1801 and in 1850, it had grown to 269. The record shows that his other children were born in Berry Pomeroy, and in Totnes. Berry Pomeroy (population in 1801 was 1124) is further east in Devon and Totnes is across the bay from Berry Pomeroy. Totnes is located on the west bank of the River Dart. Revell (2002) believes Josiah and Joan moved to Berry Pomeroy in South Devon by 1782, since Elizabeth was born that year, and they lived in Berry Pomeroy for at least 2 years. By 1787, the family had moved back to Totnes when Susanna Starr Cork was born, and they were still there in 1792. Josias wrote his will on 16 Oct 1801, and it was proved on 9 March 1802.

"By the permission of God, Josias Cork of Efford in the Parish of Eggbuckland in the County of Devon yeoman being of sound and disposing mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament in [the] manner following (that is to say) first I give and bequeath unto John Revell and Sampson Revell both of the Parish of Eggbuckland aforesaid gentleman the sum of two thousand and six hundred pounds to be paid and transferred to them within six month[s] next after my death upon the trusts and for the intents and purposes hereinafter mentioned expressed and declared of and concerning the same (that is to say) as to the sum of five hundred pounds (part of the two thousand six hundred pounds[in trust for John Star (son of my wife Joan formerly called Star] now living with me and as to the sum of five hundred pounds more [an]other part of the said sum of two thousand six hundred pounds] in trust to pay the interest thereof to my daughter Elizabeth Sherrill wife of John Sherrill of Eggbuckland aforesaid yeoman for and during her natural life to and for her sole and separate use benefit and disposal whose receipt for the same shall from time to time be a sufficient discharge and from and after her decease then as to the said sum of five hundred pounds last mentioned in trust for all and every the child and children equally to be divided between them in share and share alike if more than one and as to the sum of five hundred pounds more (other part of the said two thousand six hundred pounds) in trust for my daughter Susanna Cork ... " (Transcription by Alastair Revell, 28 June 2006).

4. REV. He married (1) JEMIMAH MILLER August 27, 1836 in Pickaway Co, OH¹⁴. She was born 1806 in Virginia, and died November 02, 1866 in Vermilion Co, IL, age 60, interred Mann's Chapel Cemetery, Vermilion Co, IL. He married (2) ROSEANNA HAAS December 25, 1870 in Vermilion Co, IL, daughter of JACOB HAAS and ROSANNA BYERLY. She was born February 20, 1834 in Shamokin Twp, Northumberland Co, PA¹⁵, and died October 09, 1897 in Vermilion Co, IL.

Notes for REV. WILLIAM CORK: William left Plymouth, England on 1 April 1834 and arrived in New York on 28 April 1834 at age 30. In that year, England passed a law making it more difficult to own land (source: Alistair Revell). It is not known why he went to Ohio after arriving in America. William Cork was a minister in the United Brethren Church, and he conducted marriages, but was probably not ordained. Deer Creek, Pickaway Co, Ohio was established in 1810 from four other counties. [When I visited Pickaway County in 2009, there were no records on William Cork.]

William brought his family to Illinois in about 1848 and he bought land on 17 Apr 1849 in Vermilion Co, Twp 22N. He took out land patents from the U.S. Government on 1 June 1850 on 160 acres of land in Sec 21, Twp 22, R12W. The original Warrant was cancelled and another one issued later because of "an error in the name of the Patentee" (source: USA Land Patent #519427). The original Warrant from the General Land Office was issued to Septor J. Holley, private, Captain Cummins; Company, Tenth Regiment, United States Infantry, numbered 35464, for 160 acres. William Cork was said to be the Assignee of Septor J. Holley. According to the Illinois Public Domain Land Tract Sales Database (US GenWeb Vermilion Co, IL) he bought three more tracts of land in Twp 22N on 8 Nov 1852. William's naturalization papers are dated 27 Oct 1856 (he was age 52) and he signed with his signature.

1840 census, Deer Creek, Pickaway, Ohio: William Cork [indexed as Cock] (age 30-39) with 2 males (under 5), 1 female (30-39). Total of 4 persons

1850 census - not yet found but he should be in Danville, IL, age 46, since a daughter was born there in 1850.

1860 census, Ross, Vermilion Co, IL: William Cork (56), Jemima Cork (54), and their children William (22), John (21), Henry M.C. (16), R.P. (14), and Ann (10). Their real estate was valued at $8,400 and personal property at $1,000.

1870 census, Rossville PO, Ross Twp, Vermilion Co, IL (11 Aug): William Cork (66), Joseph Haas (28), Ann Haas (20), William C. Haas (1), Henry Cork (24), George Young (23). William Cork was listed as United Brethren Minister with property valued at $18,000 and personal property valued at $2,000. Two of his sons, Robert and John, lived on either side of him.

1880 census: William was listed on the census as a retired farmer with real estate valued at $8,400 and personal property worth $1,000.

William's unmarried sister, Matilda, who lived in Plymouth, England wrote to Elizabeth Puzey, Jr. on 12 May 1871, "If William is at all like he used to be - pleasant, agreeable, good company, and very gentlemanly when he liked, I am not surprised at a person younger than himself marrying him."

In 1873, a United Brethren Church was built in Ross Twp, and Cork preached there (Beckwith's History of Vermilion County, IL, p. 663). By 1910, all of the original Cork land had been sold to other families. William Cork's obituary appeared in the Danville Commercial News on 4 February 1889, page 4. It read, in part, "The deceased was an Englishman by birth and a highly honored and esteemed citizen. He was a local United Brethren preacher and a farmer by occupation. He was a pioneer settler in Ross township, locating there when the Indians roamed at will over our beautiful prairies. The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Mann's Chapel, conducted by Rev. Mr. Sherrill." He was buried on February 05, 1889 in Mann's Chapel Cemetery, Tree Stump Stone, Section A, Row 7.

Extract from The Diocesan Gazette, September 1924, pp 22 & 23

THE REV. JOSIAH CORK - A Brief Record by his Eighth Son.

In St. Ann, my father's health returned. The Rectory then was 2 miles from St. Ann's Bay; several years after it was sold and a spot adjoining the Church bought for a Rectory. My father much enlarged the residence. Just below is the office of St. Ann's Benefit Building Society, which the late Hon. Michael Solomon, Custos, and my father founded in 1874. The Custos was President, my father secretary, his daughter Paulina Assistant Secretary. Both founders died in 1892; she became Secretary, retiring in 1923. Father and daughter also conducted a large Penny Bank, which she managed after my father's death. Alfred Cork, 11th August, 1924.

His newspaper obituary appeared in "The Daily Gleaner" on Monday, October 3, 1892. Headline: "The Late Rev. Josias Cork of St. Anns Bay"

"After thirty five years of faithful service in Jamaica, the Rev. Josias Cork, late Rector of St. Anns Bay passed away to his rest at noon on Sunday the twenty sixth September in his 80th year. In sorrowful tones many were heard to say, 'our good old Rector is gone, he was a good useful man.'" He also bought a threshing machine and other machinery together with 13 horses and moved them all to St Marie. He plowed and planted but the poor sandy soil could not produce a crop. Therefore, Robert established a livery stable in St Marie and did fairly well with it. St Marie is one of three locations purchased by the King of France as places for homes for priests and nuns. St. Marie was for nun, St. Anne, IL was for priests. Robert had a race horse named Lady B of which he was justly very proud. 33. ORA "ORY"⁵ CORK/COOK (*JOHN*⁴ CORK, *WILLIAM*³, *WILLIAM*², *JOSIAS*¹) was born August 18, 1878 in Rossville or Danville, Vermilion, IL⁹⁰, and died July 13, 1927 in New Orleans, LA, interred Hammond, LA. He married MARY M. "MAMIE" THIELSEN October 24, 1907 in New Orleans, LA, daughter of REGINUS THIELSEN and MARY KELIER. She was born August 14, 1881 in Akers, Tangipahoa Co, LA, and died April 21, 1947 in New Orleans, LA in Charity Hospital.

Notes for ORA "ORY" CORK/COOK: Ora was the 7th child and youngest son of John and Margaret Cork. Nothing is known about his childhood in northern Illinois. In July 1899, Ora Cork was bound over to the grand jury for participating in a "white cap" outrage in Rossville, IL, and he was released on a $300 bond. About a dozen men went to James Briley's house, called him outside, whipped, then covered him with tar (Daily Commercial Newspaper, Danville, IL, July 11, 1899 issue), reportedly because Briley had not taken care of his family. The men were accompanied by Henry German, brother of Briley's wife's. In a newspaper article, Ora was called a "Saloon Loafer" and was described as having a "lantern-jawed face" and an unforgettable chin" (Danville Daily News, 12 July, 1899). On the 1900 census, he was listed as Ora Cook, and was living with his sister, Nora Huffer. Did he skip out on his bail and change his name to evade the law? Soon after the "white capper" incident, his parents moved to Mississippi. Did he skip out of town before his trial? His father's obituary in 1905 indicated that Ora was living in Ridgeland, Mississippi. By 1907 he had gone to Louisiana, possibly because he was working as a Pile Driver Engineer and Assistant Bridges Foreman for Illinois Central Railroad. His 1907 marriage license lists Ora's real last name as Cork. In 1910, Ora sold his inheritance from his Uncle Henry, and family tradition is that he and Mamie went to Rossville or Danville about that time. According to his daughter-in-law, Ora and his wife had a car in Hammond before his death - perhaps he bought the car with his inheritance from his uncle Henry C. Cork who died in 1909. His WWI draft registration listed his height as medium and his build as stout, and he had gray eyes and brown hair. Ora died suddenly at the age of 49 of a skull fracture, and his son Roy always told his family that a load of lumber was dropped on him. In fact, Ora was working at a company that made strawberry boxes when he was killed by a fall from a scaffold. Ora did not die immediately; he was taken to Presbyterian Hospital in New Orleans where he died the next day. His body was returned to Hammond, LA via the Illinois Railroad on 14 Jul 1927 at 3pm.

Obituary: "Hammond, LA, July 15. Ora Cook suffered a fatal accident Tuesday afternoon at the plant of the Standard Box and Veneer Company. While engaged in the construction of a new unit to the factory a derrick released a large piece of timber which fell upon Mr. Cook, inflicting a fracture of the skull, breaking of his leg, and internal injuries. Rushed to a New Orleans hospital in the ambulance of C. Marvin Poole, the injured man lived until 6 o'clock Wednesday morning. His body was brought here Wednesday night and funeral and burial occurred Thursday. He was for many years associated with the Illinois Central railroad in the construction department. At that time he and his family lived in Ponchatoula. After retiring from railroad service, he moved to Hammond where he has resided for many years. He leaves a widow and several children, among the latter being Ora Cook, Jr." (source: The State Times, Friday, July 15, 1927, p. 9A).

On 27 Aug 1927, Mamie, a widow, bought property in Hammond, LA, probably with the inheritance from her husband's estate. Less than two years later, on 8 Apr 1929, a Sheriff's sale of that property was held. Most likely, she lost the property because she could not pay the taxes. Mamie then moved with her family to a rooming house, where she worked cleaning rooms. Family tradition is that she was part Indian. Roy Lee told his family that he was raised Catholic, so it is assumed that Mamie was Catholic. In 1946, the last time her daughter-in-law saw her, she wore her hair in a bun. The informant on Mamie's death certificate was her daughter, Mrs. Charles B. Archer (either Violet or Helen). Her address at death was 107 E. Morris St., Hammond, LA, and cause of death was Gastro-intestinal hemorrhage due to carcinoma of Cecum. According to their death certificates, Ora and Mamie are buried in Ponchatoula Cemetery, Hammond, LA but their markers have not been found.

1900 census, Danville Twp, Vermilion Co, IL: Ora Cook (20) was living with his sister Dora and brother-in-law John Huffer. Note: The fact that he is clearly listed in 1900 as "Cook" might mean that he was eluding the law by using his mother's maiden name.

1910 census, Ponchatoula, Tangipahoa Parish, LA: Ora Cook (29), Mayme (27), and son Ora Alfred (15 mos). Ora's occupation was listed as Assistant Foreman Bridges. The family lived on Beech Street and rented their home.

1920 (Jan) census, Hammond, Tangipahoa Parish, LA: Ory Cook (40), his wife Mamie (38), and children Ory Jr. (10), William (8), Charles (4), and Helen L. (22 mos). Mamie's mother, Margaret Tilson (68) was also living with the family. It appears that they lived on S. Church St. with the Timmon family. Ora's occupation looks like Laborer, Railway.

1930 census, 100 Morris Ave, Hammond, LA: Mamie Cook (48), Ory, 21, Charles, 15, Helen, 12, Violet, 9, Roy Lee, 7 years old. Roomers were Jack Jells, Virginia, and his wife Ruth. Mamie was proprietor of the rooming house where rooms rented for $25.00 per month.

Children of ORA CORK/COOK and MARY THIELSEN are:

- i. ORA ALFRED⁶ COOK, JR., b. January 1909, Ponchatoula, LA; d. March 29, 1974, Gonzales, LA at Hillhaven Nursing Home.

Notes for ORA ALFRED COOK, JR.: After his mother died in 1947, it is not known how or where Ory lived, but on 17 Oct 1949 he was committed to the East Louisiana State Hospital, probably because of his epilepsy. He was also diagnosed with mild psychosis. On 25 May 1973 he was transferred to the Hillhaven Nursing Home #3 in Gonzales, LA where he later died.

Newspaper story: Hammond Vindicator, 18 Nov 1949

"Several have contacted me concerning the sad plight of Ory Cook, who was recently transferred from the hospital at Independence to the Institution at Jackson. Many say that Ory should not be in Jackson, but right here in Hammond where he handled the Times-Picayune for many years, and where his services are missed. It is said that no one cared to accept Ory as a boarder and lodger, hence authorities deemed it wise to let him remain in Jackson. One friend of the boy said that he would donate $10 toward building Ory a small place in which he could sleep and get his meals at one of the numerous restaurants and cafes. Maybe the Times-Picayune would feel inclined to assist in getting Ory a place to lay his head. He certainly was faithful to the paper over a period of many years."

Another article appeared in the same paper on 2 Dec 1949 indicating that Ory Cook was a "well known newsboy here for many years and who is missed by the citizens in general." This article states that a letter was received stating that Ory was transferred from the East Louisiana Hospital of Jackson. The letter states that Ory was receiving "the best of food, a good place to sleep, and is where he will receive further privileges when he is better." It goes on to state that he is receiving "shots, shocks, and the medicine and help for his affliction."

His sister-in-law stated that he received a dishonorable discharge because he got drunk and, in a fit of jealousy, killed someone in Italy during World War II. He was released from active duty in Italy in 1944. Uncle Red died of Liver failure.
