Generation No. 1

1. EDWARD2 SWANN (WILLIAM1) was born Bef. 1630 in England or Swann's Point, Surry Co, Virginia, and died Abt. 1707 in Charles County, Maryland. He married SUSANNAH. She was born in England, and died Bef. July 24, 1740.

Notes for EDWARD SWANN: I am showing Edward's father as William Swann, who was the first Swann to live in Virginia colony. Through DNA testing, it is known that Edward and William were related but their relationship has not been proven. William patented 1200 acres of land across the river from Jamestown island in 1635; the land became known as Swann's Point (Cusce, 2001).

Note: "Returned to England after his mother died in 1636. (Bushey).

In 1638, his brother Thomas Swann brought Edward, then about 8 years old, back to Swann's Point, Virginia. "Edward first appeared in Maryland court records in 1653 when he stood good for payment of 1200 pounds of tobacco for a debt incurred by Francis Posey of St. Mary's county" (Cusce, 2001). His land was called Eagleton Plantation. On May 4, 1663, Edward served as Constable and Coroner in Charles County, Virginia.

On 9 Dec 1664, Edward was granted 1200 acres of land mostly in Charles Co, MD, by Lord Baltimore" (source: http://sites.rootsmagic.com/Worland/individual.php?p=2689). This information has not been verified by the author.

The above statement was followed by David Ladd's statement that he was a Justice of the Peace who examined Mary apart from her husband to be sure she signed voluntarily. A second statement made in Portage Co, OH by S. Day, Clerk of the Court of Common Please attested that David Ladd had come before him with the signed statements on January 18, 1830
The most interesting deed is the one showing that Jesse Swann sold land to John Griffin on Jan. 19, 1830. It's long so I'm abstracting most of it. It states that Jesse is now of the state of Ohio. For the sum of 3606 dollars, he sold land in East Huntingdon Twp, Westmoreland Co, PA. The actual description of the land is followed by ... "being a part of two tracts of patented land for one of which a patent was granted by the commonwealth to George Swann on the thirteenth day of May 1785 containing two hundred and ninety eight acres..." The other tract was granted to Jesse Swann dated 16th April 1829 containing one hundred and sixty three acres thirty two perches..." The deed states that George Swann died intestate leaving to survive him several children; the land was allotted to Jesse Swann at Orphans Court for Westmoreland County in May 1817.

ML Note: It is assumed that the PA land patent given to George Swann was payment for his service in the Maryland Militia during the Revolutionary War but this has not yet been proven.

Notes for ELIZABETH SIMPSON: 15 Mar 1802. Petition of Elizabeth SWAN, widow of George SWAN late of South Huntingdon Twp, dec'd, setting forth that her husband departed this life leaving the petitioner and 6 children, to wit: James (who is now 14 years of age), and Mary, Sarah, Rebeccah, Jesse, & Elizabeth (who are all under the age of 14 years) , and requesting the Court to appoint guardians for the 5 youngest children. The Court appoints Joseph McCOY of Mt Pleasant Twp and Joshua SIMPSON of Hempfield Twp to be joint guardians over the persons and estates of said Mary, Sarah, Rebeccah, Jesse, and Elizabeth until they respectively arrive at the age of 14 years. Petition of James Swan, one of the minor children of George Swan late of South Huntingdon Twp, dec'd, setting forth that the petitioner, being now arrived to the age of 14 years and upwards, has chosen Joshua Simpson Esq of Hempfield Twp to be guardian over his person and estate until he arrives at the age of 21 years. Approved by the Court. (page 75). Source: Old Westmoreland: The history and genealogy of Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, Vol. IV (1), 1983.

In a court document in Westmoreland Co, PA, Vol. 12, p. 433, called Letters of Attorney, James Swan identifies himself as "of Charles County, Maryland" and as the eldest son of George Swann late of Westmoreland Co, PA. He appointed Joshua Simpson and Jesse Swan as his attorneys to valuate the real estate of his father. The document was dated 29 Sept. 1815.

1830 census, Simpson, Kentucky: James Swann (60-69) with presumed wife (age 50-59) and a woman (20-29). Also 7 slaves listed by age and gender.

1840 census, Simpson, Kentucky: James Swann (50-59) with family of 9 and 1 slave.

In the 1850 Simpson Co, KY slave schedule there was only one James Swann who owned one slave, a 40 year old male.

Children of JAMES SWANN are:
  i. GEORGE J.L. SWANN, b. Abt. 1818; d. Bef. 1861.
  ii. JAMES SWANN, Jr., d. Bef. 1861.

16. MARY\(^6\) SWANN (GEORGE\(^5\), JAMES\(^4\), JAMES\(^3\), EDWARD\(^2\), WILLIAM\(^1\)) was born Abt. 1790 in Huntingdon Twp, Westmoreland Co, PA, and died July 26, 1861 in Leavittsburg, Trumbull Co, Ohio age 72 yrs, 1 mo, 7 days. She married FREDERICK HAYMAKER Abt. 1811 in prob. PA, son of JACOB HAYMAKER and EVA MEYERS. He was born November 07, 1772 in Little York, York Co, PA\(^9,10\), and died March 22, 1850 in Leavittsburg, West Warren, Trumbull Co, Ohio at age 78\(^11\).

Notes for MARY SWANN: Both the 1850 and 1860 census show her birth as closer to 1790. In about 1811, Mary became the 3rd wife of Frederick Haymaker. Frederick Haymaker's will mentions James Swan, of Maryland or Kentucky, and notes that Mary was one of his heirs. James was her older brother, possibly a twin brother. Court records from Charles Co, MD show that William Swan's descendants filed a suit regarding a land dispute. This record identifies William Swann's children and their spouses by name.

On 18 Sep 1827, Jesse Swan married Sarah Irwin of Westmoreland Co, PA.

Mary's tombstone has not yet been located and her very brief newspaper death notice does not mention where she was buried.

1850 census, Warren, Trumbull Co, OH: Jesse S. Haymaker (24), Mary Haymaker (60), Sarah Haymaker (40), Frances Haymaker (22), Henry Clay Haymaker (17). This census was taken 26 July 1850, just a few months after his father died. In Jesse's household were his mother and three of his siblings. Real estate valued at $7,000 (source: US census 1850, M432-733, p. 403).

1860 census, Warren, Trumbull Co, OH: Mary Haymaker (70) lived with her son Henry (25) and daughter Frances (27). Henry was a Miller with personal property of $200, and Mary had real estate worth $800 and property worth $400.

Notes for ALLEN R. HAYMAKER:

Allen Haymaker was born in Portage Co, Ohio or Beaver Co, PA in 1812, as the War of 1812 commenced, and five years after Aaron Burr was tried for treason. His father had distanced himself from Burr around the time the conspiracy was unearthed, by moving from PA to Ohio in 1806, near where his father and brothers were living in present-day Kent. Allen was the eldest son of Frederick's 3rd wife, Mary Swan, who was only about 23 when Allen was born into a family of at least 7 half siblings, aged 3 - about 15. By the time Allen was born, his father was well established in Kent as a business man who owned property in both Beaver Co, PA and Portage Co, Ohio, and Fred probably traveled back and forth often. Nothing is known of Allen's life or education as he grew up, but when he was about 24 years old, his parents moved to Newton Falls, Trumbull Co, Ohio. Fred corresponded during 1835 - 1837 with John Brown, the well known abolitionist, and Allen is mentioned in several of the letters. It's clear that he delivered at least some of the letters in person. Unfortunately, Allen left no written record of his interactions with John Brown.

Allen married his first wife in 1837, and they lived in Trumbull Co, and Defiance Co, Ohio as their six children were born between 1838 - and 1851. Allen's father died in 1850 and, in about 1851, he moved to Defiance Co, Ohio. After 1851, he moved his family to Madison Township, Wayne Co, Iowa. He has not been located on the 1850 census. He and Rhoda were listed in the Madison Twp, Wayne Co, Iowa census in 1856. He was listed as age 45 and Rhoda's age was 39. Their children were: Edwin, 18, Marion, 17, Frederick, 15, John, 13, Charles, 7, and Antoinette, 4. Allen's occupation was farmer and he was a voter. At that time the population of Wayne was 313. After Rhoda died, Allen quickly married Eliza A. Mead. Allen and Eliza moved to Kansas in 1869, only 15 years after it was opened to settlement, and he stayed in Big Creek Township for the remainder of his life. In 1870, he purchased 160 acres of farmland in Leanna, KS. His family lived next door to Aaron W. Reed's family, and their children went to school together. He was listed as a farmer on the 1880 census along with wife Eliza and sons Frank and Fred L. Also living with the family was Eliza's sister, Harriet, a widow and teacher, aged 51. His obituary states, "for more than 13 years, Mr. Haymaker was an invalid, and suffered intensely. He was a man of high character, and bore a good name wherever he was known." Allen died at age 77.

1840 census, Trumbull Co, OH: Allen, Rhoda, and two children.
1850 census - not yet found.
1860 census, Anamosa PO, Cass Twp, Jones Co, Iowa: Allen (40) and E.A. (30) Haymaker with children Edwin (22), Allen was a farmer with property valued at $2500 and $1330.
1870 census, Centerville, Neosho Co, KS: Allen Haymaker (52), Eliza A. (48), Edwin (33), John (25), Antonet (20), school teacher, Charles (22), farmer, Frank (9), Fred (7). Real estate valued at $3000 and property at $1500.
1880 census, Big Creek, Neosho Co, KS (p. 143), Allen Haymaker (68), farming, Eliza (58), Frank (19), Fred L. (17), Harriet Micklebeer (51), sister-in-law and teacher.

Notes for ELIZA A. MEAD: It is known that Eliza's grandfather moved to Cortland Co, NY before 1810, and that her father, Abraham, died 1849 in Cincinnatus (part of Solon until 1804). The first permanent settlers in Solon were Roderick Beebe and Johnson Bingham in 1794, and an early settler of Solon was Benjamin Beebe (probably cousins). Solon, NY was organized 9 March 1798, and the first church in Solon was formed in 1804. After her father died, the family lived for a while with her brother. In about 1856, Eliza moved with her mother and sister, Harriet, from Cortland Co, New York to Jones Co, Iowa, when she was 34 years of age. She had an older brother, George, who had moved to Jones Co, Iowa several years earlier. After her marriage she became step-mother to four children, including Anna Haymaker Hess. She and Allen sold property in Jones Co. Iowa on 22 May 1864 for the sum of $3,300. They sold more land on 23 July, 1866 to Silas Robbins for $450. It appears that the land was the property of Eliza since she is listed first on the document. According to her obituary, she trained them up "with true material fidelity. Mrs. Haymaker's life was not an eventful one, but was marked by the beauty of Christian graces." According to her obituary, in 1834 she became a Christian and united with the M.E. Church. The discourse at her funeral was based on Job 14:14 and the funeral was attended by "a large congregation being present." After Eliza's death, Frank and Fred inherited their parents' land which adjoined the Reed property.

The History of Defiance County, Ohio Illustrated (1883) contains a small biography of W.D. Haymaker. He was a state representative from 1858 - 1859. One early road project resulted in 1836 when a bill was introduced into the Ohio Senate to "incorporate the Brunersburg and Hicksville Railroad Company. William D. Haymaker, Gilman C. Mudgett, Rufus Kibber, Samuel Mapes, and Ephraim Burwell were appointed commissioners to receive stock subscriptions" (p. 107). The village of Defiance was incorporated in 1836 and in Feb. 1840, the first sidewalks were ordered. The town blocks to be included in the sidewalk order covered most of the town with "W.D. Haymaker furnishing the lumber at $10.37 per thousand and Evans and Royce laying the walk at 30 cents per rod. The walks were but three feet in width" (p. 159).

An article written by W.D. Haymaker was published in the Defiance Democrat () in which Haymaker defends his petition to remove Col. Sidney S. Sprague from office of Road Commissioner. Haymaker wrote a lengthy defense of his petition, giving his point by point arguments against the Colonel. Near the end, he wrote, "Now Col. I have done with the petition and the gross blackguardism with which you have assailed me; be assured sir, that all the darts of malice, hatred, and ill-will have fallen harmless at my feet. It is infinitely beyond your ability to injure me in any community where you are known or in any community who can have the means of knowing your public and private character. I shall never regret having incurred your ill-will. but rather have occasion to rejoice." Haymaker's letter was followed by a statement dated 8 March 1845 in which four men stated they signed their names to a petition to remove S.S. Sprague and Elijah Lloyd from the office of trustee of the Ottawa, Defiance, and West Buffalo Turnpike Road. They attested that they were not asked by Haymaker to sign the petition. Following that was a letter written by S.S. Sprague stating that the petition of Haymaker and Hilton was "notoriously false." (retrieved from The Kalida venture. (Kalida, Ohio), 28 March 1845, Chronicling America: Historic American Newspapers. Jesse was named executor of Frederick's will along with his mother Mary and Samuel Quimby. Jesse was listed in a United States Post Office Guide for Willow Dale in Trumbull Co, OH. He was a Postmaster in 1855. Prior to his death, Jesse stayed 5 days at the Barnum Hotel in St. Louis, Missouri (source: St. Louis Probate records online). Haymaker researcher, Don Vatne, located a biography of a man named William Norton Ayers, who apparently started a bank with Jesse Haymaker in Fort Smith, Arkansas. "The bank he started with his partner, Mr. Haymaker, was short lived. Haymaker absconded with the funds. Ayers tracked him down and persuaded him to return. However, Haymaker ended up shooting himself in a St. Louis hotel room before they made it back to Fort Smith." According to the Coroner's Inquest Database (www.sos.mo.gov) Jesse died by his own hand of a morphine overdose. Online Probate records show that after payment of outstanding bills, Jesse's widow received $46.93. Jesse and Abbie are buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Howland Twp (near Warren), Trumbull Co, OH.
A obituary in the Western Reserve Chronicle, December 13, 1871, has a different version of his death. The article states that Haymaker was born in Warren and was age 45 at the time of death. He removed to Ft. Smith, Arkansas in Feb. 1869 where he "soon took rank as an active, enterprising business man, and was at the time of his death, President of the First National Bank of Fort Smith. He was in Wooster, OH and had stopped on his way home in St. Louis on business. On the evening of the 24th, he retired to his room at an early hour. The proprietor of the hotel was well acquainted with Mr. Haymaker, and states that the deceased spoke of not feeling well, and for that reason would retire early [on Friday] ... he was found [Sunday] on his bed with his pants on, lying on his right side in a comparatively easy position. A coroner's inquest was held and a post mortem examination had. A glass on the table had had a small amount or morphine, a portion of which it was supposed had been taken; but the quantity, the jury thought, did not indicate any suicidal intention. It will be remembered, no doubt, by a number of our citizens, that two years ago last summer, Mr. Haymaker had a severe and almost fatal attack of sun-stroke, in Pittsburgh, from the effects of which he never fully recovered, and suffered much since that time with distressing pain in the head; unusual physical effort or special mental anxiety generally intensified the suffering. When this fact was made known to the physicians who made the post mortem examination, they immediately expressed the belief that the cause of death was congestion of the brain, especially as the vital organs appeared in a condition not indicating serious effects from an overdose of the narcotic. No one who well knew the deceased will suspect him of having been capable of suicide; and his more immediate friends and relatives, who have for months been cognizant of the fact that he was occasionally subject to attacks of vertigo and fainting, at which times it was necessary to use restoratives to revive him, feel confident that it was during one of those unfortunate occasions, when no help was at his side, that death came. His friends had been aware for some time that he was overtaxing his energies, seriously endangering his health, and possibly jeopardizing his life by a too close application to his business and an unrelaxing determination to accomplish the special objects and purposes he had in view. To these causes and circumstances, and not to any misapprehended cause that rumor may have sent out, do his more immediate friends believe that the sudden death of Mr. Haymaker is in all probability attributable (retrieved from Western Reserve chronicle. (Warren, Ohio), 13 Dec. 1871. Chronicling America: Historic American Newspapers. Lib. of Congress. <http://chroniclingamerica.loc.gov/lccn/sn84028385/1871-12-13/ed-1/seq-3/>).

This farm had two small log houses. Only ten acres were cleared, but after much hard work the farm; was under cultivation and through careful management of Mr. Swann he was able to erect a good house in 1865. Two years later he built one of the best bank barns in that part of the country his barn was 40x90 and was a great improvement. Through careful saving, Mr. Swann was able to add more to the farm and now owns one hundred and seventy-five acres, one hundred and thirty-five of which is under cultivation. Douglas County Herald - Ava, Missouri - Oct. 10, 1895. About two weeks ago Mrs. Ferguson and little girl baby, four months old from Neosho County, Kansas, came to Ava, Missouri, on a visit to Mrs. Ferguson's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Haymaker who lately came from the same place in Kansas. Mrs. Ferguson has had some kind of kidney trouble for some time and shortly after coming here she was taken down with a severe spell of the old trouble. She had only been down sick a few days when the little baby became very sick with the same disease and died Sunday at eleven o'clock. From the time the baby died, the mother sunk very rapidly until Monday noon when she also breathed her last. A telegram was sent to Mr. Ferguson at Galesburg, Kansas but from some cause or other he did not get it, and another was sent on Monday afternoon which was received all right and started for Ava.
on the first train arriving here Tuesday night about 11 o'clock. They got everything ready and started for Mansfield with the remains of both mother and child in about two hours after Mr. Ferguson arrived there. He expected to catch the morning west bound train for Kansas. The remains were taken back to their former home near Galesburg, Kansas where they will be buried today. 48. C.FRANK HAYMAKER (ALLEN R 7, MARY 6 SWANN, GEORGE 5, JAMES 4, JAMES 3, EDWARD 2, WILLIAM 1) was born November 14, 1860 in Fairview Twp, Jones Co, Iowa, and died January 25, 1917 in Deming, Luna Co, New Mexico age 56, interred Mountain View Cemetery. He married CARRIE EUNICE REED June 04, 1882 in Big Creek, Neosho Co, Kansas 119, daughter of AARON REED and MARY PATTERSON. She was born June 13, 1860 in Crittenden Co, Kentucky near Marion, and died July 26, 1935 in Savonburg, Allen Co, Kansas, buried in Leanna Cemetery 120.

Notes for C.FRANK HAYMAKER: Frank moved with his family from Iowa to Kansas when he was about 9 years old. He married the daughter of Aaron W. Reed, who lived one house down from his family. They were probably classmates in school. On 13 August 1900, Frank Haymaker, Carrie Haymaker, F.L. Haymaker, and May Haymaker sold One Square Acre of land in Neosho Co, Kansas to Josiah (?) School District 79 for a sum of $25.00. It is not known why they moved in about 1899 to Pittsburg, Crawford Co, KS. Frank deserted his wife in 1906 (source: Divorce Decree), and eventually went to New Mexico where he raised horses and farmed. He lived in Cambray, New Mexico. His son Harry visited him once in New Mexico, according to Harry’s daughter. His burial was handled by J.A. Mahoney Funeral Home and Wheelers Mortuary, Information obtained by Gerald Reed in 1962 from the Deming, NM Chamber of Commerce shows burial in Mountain View Cemetery in Sunset Plot, Row 4, Lot 70. The online transcription of grave stones in Mountain View verifies his burial there.

1880 census, Big Creek, Neosho Co, KS: Frank was 19 and listed as a Farmer.

1900 census, Pittsburg (Ward 4), Crawford Co, Kansas, at 4098 N. Broadway St. The index lists them as Hoyber: Frank, Carrie, and children Roy, Winnie and Harry (listed as Harland). Frank's occupation was Land Lord and Carrie's occupation was Land Lady. Since they didn't have boarders, it's assumed they owned land or property.

Notes for CARRIE EUNICE REED: In 1870, at the age of 10, Carrie Reed traveled with her parents and 4 siblings from Kentucky to a farm in Neosho Co, Kansas. The census shows that the Reed and Haymaker families lived one door down from each other in Leanna, KS. At the age of 21, she married her neighbor and schoolmate Frank Haymaker. Nothing is known about their married lives except that they had 3 children. Carrie, Frank and the children were living in Pittsburg, Crawford Co, KS in 1900, and the census indicates that she was a "landlady." The copy of her Divorce Decree indicates that Frank deserted the family in 1906. By summer, 1907 Carrie was living in Los Angeles, CA with Harry, age 15. She took him back to Kansas in the fall, and began divorce procedures on 7 Oct 1907, through her attorney Chris Ritter, waiving a jury trial. Carrie appeared in court on 14 Dec 1907 for the trial. Frank did not appear, and the divorce was granted. Carrie retained custody of her minor son, Harry, and she retained title to her property of 82 acres of land. She was back in Los Angeles by 25 Feb 1908, when she sent her post card from the Hotel Lankershim. Her eldest son, Roy, was already married and living in Los Angeles by the time she moved there, but he is never mentioned in the numerous post cards that Carrie sent to Harry. In July 1908, Carrie took the train to Salt Lake City, probably because she suffered from rheumatism and hoped the weather would help. She arrived on 8 July, and wrote to her son, “If I get better of this rheumatism I think I will like it here.” The next week, she wrote, "The weather is nice here and I don't freeze like I did in L.A. so am in hopes my rheumatism will get better in time." In September, Carrie was feeling better and she wrote to Harry about a visit to the Mormon Tabernacle to hear the organ recital. She was very impressed with the building and remarked that it had been finished when she was 7 years old. Carrie seems to have remained in Salt Lake City until after Christmas, 1908. She returned in Oakland, CA on 19 Jan 1909. My mother believes that Carrie ran a rooming house in Oakland California, but I have not yet found evidence to prove that fact.

There is evidence in Harry's post card collection (now in possession of ML Cook) that Carrie, and probably her 2nd husband Frank Lynn, visited Kansas in 1910, perhaps on their honeymoon. She was in Coffeyville, KS on May 10 and she indicated her intention to be in Iola to visit Harry in a few days. Carrie was back in Oakland, California by 4 Nov 1910 when she sent him a post card chiding him for not yet writing. She signed most of her postcards with the words, "love and kisses, Mama." Her final post card from Oakland was dated 21 Feb 1912. By 1920, Carrie and Frank Lynn were living on 19th Street in Oakland, California (US Census 1920, T625, Roll 89, p. 102). Frank was listed as an insurance solicitor. Carrie sent two post cards to her son in 1921, and they indicate she was living in Alameda, California. In April 1930, Frank and Carrie were living in Olympia, WA with Winnie and Cor Post and their children. After Frank died, he was cremated in Tacoma, WA. Carrie went back to Kansas to live with family members. She had 11 grandchildren. She died of a heart attack is buried in the family plot at Leanna Cemetery, Neosho Co, KS. The name on her tombstone is "Carrie Reed Lynn."

Lineville Tribune, Nov. 30, 1905

The report of the death of Ed Mudgett at his home 4 ½ miles east of this place on Wednesday night of last week was a shock and surprise seldom experienced by this community. He had been ill for several days from an affliction of the heart, but had been able to be about the house and no immediate danger was feared. The family had retired on Wednesday night and Mrs. Mudgett was awakened from sleep about ten o'clock and found Mr. Mudgett sitting up on the side of the bed. Almost immediately he fell back into her arms and after a gasp or two was dead. The funeral was deferred until Monday afternoon in order that a sister who resides in California and other relatives at distant points might attend, and all of them arrived with the exception of a brother at Spokane, Wash., who was ill and unable to come. In the death of Ed Mudgett the community has lost a good and useful citizen whose strong influence and forceful character was always exerted for the highest and best purposes. To his family the loss is irreparable and they have the deepest sympathy of all.

Edward Mudgett was born in Western Ohio April 9, 1842. He moved from there to Indiana where he lived six years. In 1853 he moved to Jones county, Iowa, and in 1860 moved to southern Iowa. In 1861 he enlisted in the Third Regiment Iowa Cavalry, joining Co. L. of which his father was captain, and served till the close of the war. He was commissary sergeant for several years and in 1865 was promoted to 2nd lieutenant. He moved near Princeton in 1866 and moved to his place east of Lineville in 1884, where he lived until the time of his death with the exception of the six years he lived in Lineville.

He was married to Margaret M. Linsey Nov. 18, 1869. To them were born six children, four boys and two girls, who survive him. He united with the M.E. Church south of Fairview about 20 years ago of which he was a member until the time of his death. He was a prominent citizen, and a good Christian man and we join his friends in mourning his loss. His funeral was preached by his pastor in the Lineville M. E. Church, South, and his body laid to rest in Evergreen Cemetery to await the resurrection morn. Peace to his ashes. The bereaved widow and children of the deceased express their heartfelt thanks for the kind assistance and sympathy extended to them by neighbors and friends in the time of their great sorrow and bereavement.

G. HAMILTON FAY, engaged in the laundry business, represents a continuation of a business service with which the Fay family has been identified in Los Angeles for over forty years, Mr. Fay's grandfather having been one of the pioneer laundymen of the city.

G. Hamilton Fay, who was brought to California when nine years of age, was born at Bryan, Ohio, June 19, 1881, son of F. E. and Laura (Hamilton) Fay, and grandson of Elon Galusha Fay. G. Hamilton Fay's great-uncle, Rev. Eli Fay, a brief sketch of whom is published preceding, came to California in 1886 and was prominent as a Unitarian minister and at one time owned the corner at Fifth and Broadway, where the Fifth Street Department Store now stands. Elon Galusha Fay was born in New York State, December 13, 1824. His home was in Los Angeles from 1888 until his death on October 6, 1909. He was eighty five years old when he died. After coming to Los Angeles he engaged in the laundry business and operated the old Empire Laundry, which has since been succeeded by the Home Service Company of Los Angeles. F. E. Fay became owner of some large properties in the San Juaquin Valley and managed these from his home in Los Angeles. He was retired when he died, February 12, 1922. He was also born near Bryan, Ohio. His wife, Laura Hamilton Fay, who was prominent in social and charitable work at Los Angeles, died September 28, 1919. She was born in 1853 at Mount Pleasant, Ohio, and had lived in Los Angeles since 1890. She was a charter member of the Friday Morning Club, a member of the Ruskin Art Club, and the Galpin Shakespeare Club, the Humane Society, and was member of the Board of Directors of the Maternity Cottage. She and her husband had two sons and two daughters, all of whom were born at Bryan, Ohio: Mrs. Ira A. Campbell, of New York City, G. Hamilton, Cynthia Fay Clarke and Eli P. Fay, all of Los Angeles.

G. Hamilton Fay was liberally educated, attending the grammar schools and high school of Los Angeles, and was a student at the University of Michigan. After leaving school he engaged in the laundry business, learning it from all angles, and was with the Empire Laundry, later with the Home Service Company, and in 1926 sold his interest in the latter corporation. On January 1, 1927, he established the Fay Company Laundry located at 1663-1671 Cordover Street. He was sole owner, and established it as a business with a special mission, handling family laundry work, and both rough and finished work at pound rates, new departure in this business. This company he sold to the Community Laundry Service in September, 1928. Mr. Fay was placed in the managership of the Bay City Laundry at Venice, which laundry is owned by the Community Laundry Service.
Mr. Fay is an independent voter and for a number of years was a University Club of Los Angeles. He married, December 19, 1908, Miss Olive Garver, of Bryan, Ohio, where she was born and acquired her early schooling. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Garver, the latter now deceased. Her father, now retired, was a manufacturer of wheelbarrows in Bryan, Ohio, and later cashier of a bank in that city. The Chillicothe Industrial Home for Girls [is significant] in the area of Law/Juvenile Justice for its role in the development and evolution of the State of Missouri’s approach to the treatment of juvenile offenders over the period of 1888-1889 to ca. 1970. Developed as a Progressive-era facility to separate juveniles from the adult population of criminals, the State’s first foray into the creation of a juvenile justice system began with the development of its three Industrial Homes. These campus-like facilities were intended to provide a more home-like setting where educational and vocational programs could lead to the rehabilitation of juvenile offenders into productive, useful adult citizens. The lack of walls, fences and other prison-like features underscored the intent of providing a different approach to the rehabilitation of the juvenile resident” (http://www.waymarking.com/waymarks/WMH41Q_Chillicothe_Industrial_Home_for_Girls).

Notes for ROY ARCHIBALD HAYMAKER: It is not known exactly when Roy went to California, but he was there by 1903 when he was married. His daughter Hazel died there in 1905. After his mother, Carrie, was divorced in 1907, she may have moved to CA to be near him. However, in the post card collection saved by Harry Haymaker, no mention was ever made of Roy. According to Harry’s daughter, Roy and Harry had a falling out and didn’t communicate for many years. Roy was divorced from his first wife about 1936. Cause of his death was sudden coronary thrombosis due to a head injury in April 1944, which was caused by an auto accident.

Notes for Winnie May Haymaker: Winnie attended school in Leanna, Kansas for 8 years. In 1899 she moved with her family to Pittsburg, Crawford Co, PA, and attended the city schools for 4 years. She finished the high school course in 3 years and graduated in English (from a yearbook page). Winnie traveled by train to Yellowstone Park in June 1907, and her post cards show that she also visited Minneapolis, Minnesota that summer. Winnie sent a post card to her brother Harry from Los Angeles in Nov 1907 and two others from San Bernadino, CA on 26 Nov 1907 and 25 Dec 1907. Her message indicates that she took a job, and "didn't get just what I wanted but will be satisfied for a while." On 6 Jan 1908, she sent a post card to her mother in Iola, Kansas, and it appears that she stayed in LA until the summer, when she went to work at a hotel resort called "The Tallac" in Lake Tahoe. In September 1908, Winnie moved to San Francisco, which she said she liked better than Los Angeles. In her post card from San Francisco, Winnie talked about the effects of the 1905 fire, which were still evident in 1908. The last post card in Harry's album from Winnie is dated 21 Feb 1912, and it was sent from Oakland. After her death, Winnie was cremated by Oakwood Crematory, Tacoma, Pierce Co, WA on January 06, 1944.

Notes for WINNIFRED "POSIE" POST: Mother knew her and she visited in South Bend in about 1945. She stayed with the Haymakers for a month or so. Her husband was in the service and she was traveling back home to Washington state. When mother visited Adele, they went to visit Winnie and Don Young. Her daughter wrote to mother once.

92. Harry Harlan9 Haymaker (C. Frank8, Allen R.7, Mary6 Swann, George5, James4, James3, Edward2, William1) was born May 19, 1892 in Chanute, Neosho Co., KS335, and died October 05, 1969 in South Bend, St. Joseph Co, IN, interred Highland Cemetery, South Bend336. He married Opal Maud Keim September 22, 1912 in Iola, KS in the Church of the United Brethren in Christ337, daughter of John Keim and Anna Tipton. She was born October 06, 1891 in Logan Co, KS near Russell Springs, and died April 22, 1985 in Fort Worth, Tarrant Co, TX, interred Highland Cemetery, South Bend338.

Notes for Harry Harlan Haymaker: Harry Harlan Haymaker (grandfather of Mary Lou Cook) was born on a farm, and attended school at Leanna, Pittsburgh, and Iola Kansas. He finally quit school after the 8th grade because, although he liked to read, he didn't like something the teacher wanted him to do. His parents were divorced in 1907 when he was about 15 years old, and his mother and sister Winnie moved to California. Harry's post card collection shows that he was in Los Angeles during the summer of 1907, when his sister sent him at least 8 post cards while she traveled to Yellowstone National Park by train. Harry lived with the Snodgrass family in Chanute for about a year and, according to his daughter, he remained close to the Reeds throughout his life. There is evidence in the post cards that Harry's mother took him back to Chanute from California, and stayed with him at the Snodgrass farm for several months.
His friend in Kansas who took pictures of Harry was Nathan Leffler, a photographer. Sometime in mid-August, 1908, Harry moved to Iola, where he worked for a while as a machinist at a cement plant. For the first month, he received his mail via general delivery. Then the post cards show that he lived at 819 Jefferson Street for about 4 months. He moved to 211 South Chestnut Street in Iola in February, 1909 but was only there for a few months. By April 1910, he was in Iola, Kansas boarding with the John C. Keim family, and that is undoubtedly how Harry and Opal met (1910 census, Iola, Allen Co, Kansas). Harry's daughter said that Anna A. Tipton, Opal's mother, didn't want him to marry Opal because he smoked.

After he and Opal were married in Iola in 1912, they went to California on their honeymoon, probably to see his mother. They rode the ferry to Catalina from Oakland. Mother says he was sick with pneumonia and pleurisy around that time and was very ill. Anna Haymaker Hess loaned them her house in Chanute, KS. During WWI, he was drafted but discharged on August 09, 1915 as unfit for duty due to nervous problems ("neurosthenia"), even though he was a precision machinist. His daughter remembers that he had a toolbox with velvet-lined drawers that contained levels & squares. He and Opal moved to South Bend, Indiana 17 April 1917 and lived in Coquillard Flats (apartments close to downtown). It is likely that they chose South Bend because her Uncle Adam Keim lived there. Harry worked for Singer, where he finished cabinets, and later he worked for Studebaker until he retired in 1956. According to his daughter, Mary, in every house where they lived, Harry cut a hole in the ceiling to the attic so firemen wouldn't have to cut into the house. On one occasion, Mary remembers that Harry's mother, Carrie Reed, came to visit after her 2nd husband died in 1929. When Carrie died in Kansas, Harry was very upset because he had no money to make the trip to Kansas. Relatives sent enough money for Harry to take a bus to Kansas, and he was able to attend the funeral. Harry and Opal celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary in 1962 with all four of their children in attendance. A reception was held for them at St. Paul's Memorial Methodist Church on Sunday, Sep. 23, 1962. Harry was a heavy smoker of Camel cigarettes, and he developed gangrene in his lower legs as a result of the smoking and diabetes. In about 1960, both of his legs were amputated below the knees, and he was wheelchair bound for the remainder of his life. His cause of death was subarachnoid hemorrhage, generalized atherosclerosis, and diabetes mellitus.

Notes for OPA L MAUD KEIM: Opal was born near Russell Springs, Logan County, Kansas, and likely lived for a while in a sod house. After her grandfather Tipton's death in 1896, the family moved back to Westphalia, Anderson Co, KS and lived until the early 1900s at the Tipton homestead. As a young woman, Opal worked for a time as a telephone operator in Iola. Her father had gone to college, and she could have done so also, but she chose to work instead. She played the pump organ for a church in Kansas. During the depression, the family received help from her sister Hazel, who often brought food from the Warner farm. When her husband lost his job, Opal worked in the "Frances Shop" a fashionable women's dress shop in South Bend. She became an expert seamstress like her mother, and specialized in alterations. Her granddaughter, Mary Lou, remembers that Opal had several women customers who regularly came to her home at 304 East Donald Street, South Bend, Indiana, to have their hemlines lowered or raised depending on the current fashion. Opal would sit on the floor with her pin cushion on her wrist, pinning up the new hemlines. Opal made Mary Lou's wedding dress by taking a pattern and altering it to match a store-made gown. In addition to her sewing work, Opal was a devoted and expert gardener. During the summers in South Bend, she kept a beautiful garden of flowers along with vegetables like tomatoes, carrots, onions, and beans. She especially loved "moss rose" and rose bushes, and she always had fresh cut roses in her home. Every summer Opal canned tomatoes and peaches, and the family enjoyed fresh food all through the winter. For most of her adult life, Opal suffered from a digestive problem that forced her to recline after a meal. To prevent health problems, she took regular walks throughout her life, never smoked or drank alcohol, and maintained a healthy weight. She avoided caffeine, and drank Postum every morning because she wanted a hot drink. For most of her adult life, she was a member of St. Paul's United Methodist, where her funeral service was held. Opal regularly read "Prevention Magazine" and "Guideposts." The fact that she lived 93 healthy years is a testament to her lifestyle. Opal is #13886 in the book "Descendants of Barbara Hochstetter."

In about 1983, Opal moved from her apartment in South Bend, IN to her daughter's home in Fort Worth, Texas.

Children of HARRY HAYMAKER and OPAL KEIM are:

ii. MARY LOUISE HAYMAKER, b. April 28, 1920, South Bend, Indiana; m. May 17, 1977, Fort Worth, Tarrant Co, TX, interred Mount Olivet Cemetery; m. (1) ROY LEE COOK, June 21, 1944, Normoyle Field, San Antonio, TX; b. September 20, 1922, Hammond, Tangipahoa Parish, LA; d. October 21, 1978, Ft. Worth, TX, interred Greenwood Cemetery; m. (2) CLIFFORD FLOYD WEST, February 16, 1974, Fort Worth, TX; d. May 11, 1911, Fort Worth, Tarrant, Texas; d. August 11, 2001, Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas.

Notes for MARY LOUISE HAYMAKER: My mother loved music. She taught me to play the piano and the organ. One of my favorite memories is when we played duets on the piano. There was one piece she played that I absolutely loved - the title (about Spring) is gone but I can still hear her play it. Even while she was organist at River Oaks Christian Church, she took organ lessons from Stanley S. She practiced diligently and became better and better, but it was never good enough for her ears. Mother sang in the church choir long before she started playing for church. When I turned 12, she let me join the adult choir and I learned to sing alto sitting next to her. In addition to playing music, she loved to listen to almost any classical piece. When we lived in Texas, she often took me to the Fort Worth Opera and to Casa Manana where they performed classic musicals like Flower Drum Song, Annie Get Your Gun, and The Unsinkable Molly Brown. At home we had a book that told the stories of operas. Before we went to the opera, I read the story and then during the performance, she quietly explained the plot as it was told in music. We also watched operas that were in TV and I loved hearing her tell the stories. It always seemed like she knew everything about music. When mother was about 80 her eyesight began to fail due to macular degeneration. She had all the treatments that were available, but she became increasingly unable to see enough to read or see the music required to sing in the choir and play the organ. Once while she was living with me, she said it was too bad she hadn't spent more time on voice lessons because she could still sing. She often pondered which sight was the worst to lose. I think she was glad she could always hear the music. Toward the end of her days, she spent most of the time listening to classical music. I can only imagine the memories that came while she listened. Once while she lived with me, I took off one day and took her to Nashville with the senior center group to hear the organ at the Schermerhorn Theater. The organist played and talked about the organ. I know she loved that program as she loved all of the many organ concerts she attended. One advantage of living in Ft. Worth was getting to attend the Van Cliburn piano competitions. I remember when she actually got to hear him play. She loved his playing.

Second only to music was my mother’s interest in family history. After she retired in about 1982, she put many hours into the search for our ancestors. Wherever she went to attend the Organ Guild conferences, she made time to visit cousins. Over the years, she obtained copies of pictures, wills, Bible records, and family stories. I remember her telling me that we could join the DAR. When I finally was ready to join, the work she had done made it relatively easy to put the application papers together. She never really became computer literate due to the loss of her sight, but she did the footwork required to obtain the proof of our lineage. She often spent hours at the Ft. Worth library studying their collection of genealogy books. She also attended quite a few genealogy workshops to further hone her skills. We had many wonderful discussions about family history over the years. I was fortunate to receive her collection of genealogy books which I refer to often. I also have her extensive collection of letters that she received from cousins and friends as she searched for information. Whenever a new discovery was made we called each other to discuss it. Once I received an e-mail from a stranger in San Antonio, Texas. She had found the tombstone of our ancestor, Frederick Haymaker. My mother loved to speculate about how his tombstone got there. Her imagination went wild as she made up stories about his traveling to Texas from Ohio to speculate on land.

The body has been deed to the anatomy department of the University of Iowa and will be cremated there. Burial will be in the cemetery in Sidney.

Eino Olavi Kainlauri was born June 13, 1922, in Lahti, Finland, the son of William (Poyhonen) and Eva Kainlauri, (who chose the wife's family name as their marriage.) He graduated from Lahti Lyceum in 1941, having already served in the Finnish Armed Forces during the "Winter War" in 1939-40, as a volunteer and continued his service in the "Continuation War" in 1941-44. He was discharged from the Finnish Army in November 1944 as a first lieutenant, and after having been decorated with the Medal and Cross of Liberty. After two years of studies at the Helsinki University of Technology, he continued his studies at the University of Michigan, receiving a bachelor of architecture degree in February 1950.

He married Genevieve Marjorie Mobley Aug. 20, 1949, in Ann Arbor, Mich. They have three children, John Stanford Kainlauri, William Eino Kainlauri and Mary Ann Shao, and three grandchildren, Amie, Julia and Andrew Shao.

Eino's initial work experiences were in the office of architect Paul Kasurin, the University of Michigan architect's office and as a dealer facilities architect for the Ford Motor company. In 1956, he formed a partnership with William Davis, AIA, and in 1959, formed the Kainlauri MacMullan (and Millman) Architects, Engineers and Planners Inc., later abbreviated to KMM Associates Inc. In 1959, he obtained a master's of architecture degree (with the minor in education) from the University of Michigan and about the same time completed an equivalent of two years of "off-campus" studies in Theology at Suomi College in Hancock, Mich.

In his 20 years in private practice, Eino was the architect of more than 70 schools, 45 churches and numerous commercial, public houses and housing projects in Michigan and some adjacent states. After a serious illness in 1970, he continued his education and received a Ph.D. in natural resources (regional, environmental and resource planning) in 1975 from the University of Michigan. That year, he was appointed as the professor in charge of continuing education in architecture at Iowa State University of Science and Technology, and he and his wife moved to Ames in 1975.

During his 17 years at ISU, he arranged and conducted more than 200 seminars, workshops and conferences in Iowa, with a total attendance of more than 10,000 professional architects, engineers and others involved in building industry. He also acted as the major professor directing numerous graduate students in their thesis work and research projects. He organized and directed several international exchange programs, including a foreign study semester in Finland with a tour of Europe and the Soviet Union. As an active member in several national committees of the American Institute of Architects, he helped organize, chaired and participated in a number of international conferences, including joint AIA Design conferences with Finnish architects in Finland and Japanese architects in Japan.

He authored close to 100 professional and scientific papers and research reports, and his doctoral dissertation on “International Cooperation in Regional Planning of Lapland” was published by the ISU Press (1976). He was at one time consultant to the National Bureau of Standards and chaired the American Society for Testing and Material’s Dimensional Coordination Committee for several years. As a member of ASHRAE, he organized and conducted more than a dozen scientific seminars at the engineering society’s annual meetings and chaired its District Heating and Cooling Committee for two years. He was a recipient of Senior Fulbright Research Awards, twice, in 1974-74 and in 1983-84 for research in Scandinavia. For the 350-year anniversary celebration of the Swedish-Finnish Settlement in Delaware, he organized and produced a 69-board Exhibit of the American Architects of Finnish Heritage which toured the USA and Finland in 1988-90.

For his international education and cultural efforts, he received several honors. In 1992, the president of Finland named him a knight, first class, of the Order of the White Rose in Finland. In 1995, he received the ASHRAE Distinguished Service Award, and in 1996, he was elected to the College of Fellows in the American Institute of Architects.

As a loving husband and father, Eino participated in parent-teacher activities in Ann Arbor Public Schools, and served as a Sunday school teacher of the "Beginners" at the Zion Lutheran Church for seven years, and then as the supervisor of the Zion Lutheran Church Confirmation School for another seven years. With his sons, he served as a Cub Scout and Boy Scout leader and also as the district commissioner. When his daughter participated in the Michigan Youth Symphony Tour in Finland in 1973, he served as the tour manager. He also coached his son's Little League baseball teams for eight years. In community activities, he started as a Jaycee and became an outstanding president of the Ann Arbor Optimist Club in 1969 and served as the lieutenant governor the following year. In Ames, he served as a member of Ames Lions Club and received the distinguished service award in 2000. He retired from ISU in 1992, and remained active as a mentor of students at ISU and as a member of St. Andrew's Lutheran Church and in other civic organizations. Most recently, he enjoyed being a Boy Scout grandpa for his grandson Andrew and his troop as well as watching Andrew at soccer games and practices. Notes for ALTON CHRISTOPHER HAYMAKER, JR.: Alton Haymaker, 82, died peacefully on July 2, 2009 at Kadlec Medical Center with his family around him. Al was born on August 10, 1926 in Everett, WA.

After graduating from Everett High School he joined the Navy and served 2 years on Guam during WWI. He ran a carpenter crew of Japanese prisoners of war, and when he left they gave him many presents they had made. He attended Santa Monica Technical College in CA, and became a Journeyman machinist. He met and married his wife Joan in 1947. His main love was farming, having spent his summers on his uncles' wheat farms in Waterville. He bought his Block 15 farm in 1954 where he grew many crops before planting his first cherry orchard which later became "Columbia River Cherries." He was honored for his conservation practices. The "Eleventh Commandment" hung on his wall. It said that you never really own land. It is only entrusted to you, and you must leave it in better shape for the next generation. The family farmed for 50 years before he retired at 75 and leased his land to "J&S Orchards".

Al always stayed close to his old school friends and cousins. He could talk to any stranger he met. He loved to read, to learn and to explain things to his granddaughters. He enjoyed doing research on the computer and corresponding with his email buddy, Sarah. He taught his children good work ethics which they are grateful for today. They always had farm chores and he kept their hours in a little book. They got paid only after the crops were in. He sometimes held down 2 jobs so the family could live a little better.

His great grandchildren are Kylie, Taylor, Haylie, Addy, Brandi, Levi, Savannah, Devin and Hudson. Also surviving are his sister Harriet Koster (John), nieces Cheryl Yeates (Charlie), Kai Scheerer (Bill), several Ludeman cousins and his cat "Cuddles" who sleeps on his bed, recliner or desk.

He was preceded in death by his son Gary Haymaker, his parents Alton C. and Mary Ludeman Haymaker, a step granddaughter Virginia Atkins and a daughter-in-law Carol Haymaker, and many Ludeman uncles, aunts and cousins.

We want to thank the many doctors and nurses who cared for him at Lourdes and Kadlec Hospitals. Kadlec Medical Center made our final day with him a very comforting experience. Also special thanks to Dr. Jim Campbell who took care of him over many years, and a hug for Lluba and Amber.

Granddaughter's message: Thank you for teaching me the names of the stars, I loved your stories even I've heard them before and I'll look for a sign from you.

Following Al's wishes, a private family service was held on Sunday, July 5 at our granddaughter's home. For anyone who would like to remember Al, he would have liked for you to give to a cause that you believe in, or to the American Heart Association. Posted to Find-a-Grave # 45649763
